1:00 Call To Worship

Liturgist: John Huffhaker

Leader: Come with open hearts and curious minds, to a place where fear gives way to faith, and enemies might become friends.

People: We come, seeking courage to face the unknown and grace to see the world through God's eyes.

Leader: God calls the unlikely, the unsure, and the overlooked— and transforms them into peacemakers and heroes.

People: We are ready, Lord. Teach us to trust, to grow, and to love boldly.

All: Let us worship the God who tames storms, breaks walls, and teaches us how to fly.

1:00 Unison Prayer

All: God of wonder and wisdom,
You see beauty where we see danger,
and potential where we see weakness.
Too often, we let fear shape our vision.
We judge what we do not understand,
and we hold back from becoming who You call us to be.

Forgive us, Lord.
Open our eyes to the goodness in others—even those we're tempted to mistrust.
Open our hearts to change—
even when it feels uncomfortable.
And open our lives to Your Spirit—
who transforms fear into courage,
division into friendship,
and small acts into great love.
Amen.
