1:00 Call To Worship

Liturgist: Dan O'Neill

Leader: Come just as you are—no masks, no pretending.
Bring your whole self—your gifts and your questions, your dreams and doubts.

People: We come, created in love, claimed by grace, called to be exactly who God made us to be.

Leader: God doesn't ask us to fit in. God invites us to stand tall in truth and walk humbly in love.

People: We are enough. We are beloved. We are becoming.

All: Let us worship the One who knows us, accepts us, and calls us to live with courage and joy.

1:00 Unison Prayer

All: Loving God,
You made each of us in Your image—
beautiful, complex, and full of possibility.
You see what the world misses.
You delight in what makes us different.

But sometimes we hide.
We try to be what others expect.
We trade honesty for approval,
and forget that You already call us beloved.

Remind us today that we are enough.
Teach us to trust Your design,
to live with open hearts,
and to celebrate the unique light You have placed in us and others.

Help us be brave enough to be ourselves—
because that's exactly who You created us to be.
Amen.
