

Traditional Worship Service

Rahab the Unexpected Hero

June 14, 2026

HERoes of the Faith

Length in mins

5:00 Prelude

1:30 Live Stream Startup

3:00 Introit

Please list artist and title here – Remove item if there is no introit

5:00 Welcome & Announcements

Grace Evans

1:00 Call To Worship

Liturgist: Grace Evans

Leader: The world may label you as this or that.

People: God knows us as beloved.

Leader: You may feel empowered or not enough.

People: God can still use our gifts.

Leader: Come and worship just as you are for you are God's child.

People: Let us praise with bold hope and deep love!

3:00 I Sing A Song Of The Saints Of God

#712 UMH, vs. 1-3

1:00 Unison Prayer

ALL: Almighty God, we come to you knowing that you are always doing a new and unexpected thing in our lives and in the world. Open our hearts to see others as you see them, to serve others as you would serve them, and to trust you in all our circumstances. Open our minds that we might not underestimate all that you can do when we courageously and boldly serve your purposes. Open our doors to shelter your people with love and acceptance. We pray this in the mighty name of Jesus, our Lord and our Savior. Amen.

3:30 Special Music

"Stained Glass," Dan and Fae

5:00 A Time for Children

Noelle Allison, Director of Children and Families

Indicate special props, placement and movement if known.

1:00 Scripture Readings

Hebrews 11:29-31

5:00 Pastoral Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

1:00 Offering Our Gifts to The Lord - Breakthrough Prayer

Introduction to the Offering

As we prepare to receive the offering today, there is another reason why we give financial offerings. Last week we acknowledged that giving is an act of worship. A second reason is that giving is an act of faith. When you give, you are saying, "I trust you with this aspect of my life, Lord." This act of faith is never more tested or true than when we are facing financially challenging times. You may recall the gospel story of the poor widow who went to the temple and put two small coins into the offering basket. For her, that contribution represented a real sacrifice but more importantly, it represented how deeply she trusted God to provide for her needs. Her faith was noticed and commended by Jesus.

We are in a series looking at heroes. A hero is someone who does the right thing in the face of adversity and uncertainty.

That widow's act of generosity in the face of her own challenges made her a hero in the eyes of heaven.

Friends, you may not feel that you can give enough time, talent, or treasure to make a difference but there is good news!

When we boldly give in the ways we can, God can do mighty things. So, give without fear or reservation and know that God is able.

As the ushers come forward, let us pray together our Breakthrough Prayer:

Length in mins

O God, we offer ourselves to you. We are your people and this is your church. Use our gifts and breakthrough in new ways as we seek to love our neighbors and be a beacon of Christ-centered hope to our community. In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen

4:00 Offertory
"The Gift of Love", Show Up and Sing Choir

1:00 Doxology

20:00 Message
Preacher: Rev. Doug McKinney
Title: Rahab the Unexpected Hero
Scripture: Joshua 2:1-14

3:00 Joshua Fit The Battle Of Jericho
Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho

1:00 Benediction
Optional Benediction (not required):

Go forth with courage, strength, and resilience to do God's work with boldness!

2:00 Postlude

57:30
